THE PRESIDENT'S APPOINTMENTS
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1953

- 9:00 am - Mr. Henry Riter, President, Thomas A. Edison, Inc.
Mr. Martin, of the Thomas A. Edison, Inc.
(Today is the birthday of Thomas A. Edison, and in commemoration of that anniversary, Honorable Charles Edison, son of the inventor and former Governor of New Jersey, asked if Mr. Riter might call on the President and present him with a miniature dictating machine, so small it can be carried in a brief case. Governor Edison would have come himself but had to address a meeting in honor of his father being held in Florida. They expect no publicity whatsoever on this; in fact prefer none.)
- 9:25 am - (General Persons)
- 9:30 am - The President received Members of the Lincoln Day Committee of the Republicans of the House of Representatives and of the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia:

Mrs. Joseph R. Farrington
Mrs. John Morrison Kerr
Mrs. Paul E. Shorb
Mrs. Carroll D. Kearns, President of League of Republican Women of District of Columbia
Mr. Robert Todd Lincoln Beckwith, great grandson of Abraham Lincoln
(Mrs. Kearns asked if this group might call on the President and, in keeping with traditional observance of Lincoln's Birthday, present to him a token memorial in form of a scroll, a piece of Strathmore paper inserted in leather portfolio, inscribed to the President, and containing two medallions, on a pen likeness of President Lincoln, and a pen likeness of President Eisenhower, with quotation from Lincoln.)
- 9:45 am - Honorable Leo A. Rover, former U.S. Attorney for D. C.
Mr. Alfred A. McGarraghy, brother of Joseph McGarraghy
Mr. William B. Jones, lawyer in Washington, D. C.
Mr. John A. Reilly, President, Second National Bank, D. C.
Honorable Bernard Shanley, Acting Special Counsel to the President
(Mr. Reilly wrote Mr. Stephens asking if this Committee from the John Carroll Society might call on the President and invite him to attend The Red Mass at St. Matthews Cathedral of this City, Sunday, February 15. This Mass is celebrated generally near the beginning of the judicial year and attended by judges, lawyers and officials of all faiths, invoking God's guidance in administration of justice.)

Mr. George W. Bunn, President of the Abraham Lincoln Association
Dr. Mason Gross, Provost of Rutgers
Mr. Harold Munger, Editor, Rutgers University Press
Mr. Roy Dasler, Executive Secretary, Abraham Lincoln Association
(Last January 3, Tracy Voorhees, a Trustee of Rutgers, wrote Mr. Arthur Vandenberg asking if this group might present to the President "The Collected Works of Abraham Lincoln", published by Rutgers University Press in conjunction with the Abraham Lincoln Association. These nine volumes, result of twenty-five years study by the Association, financed by Rockefeller Foundation and many individuals. Believed to contain 99% of all Lincoln material, and it is unlikely that more than a handful of items not included in this work will ever be discovered. These volumes are being presented to the President for the Congressional Library, and if he wishes he may have set for his own Library.)
- 9:00 am - Mr. Fred G. Gurley, of Chicago, President, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway System
Mr. Walter S. Franklin of Philadelphia, President, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company
Mr. A. L. M. Wiggins, Hartsville, S.C., Chairman of Board, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company and Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company
Mr. William T. Farley, Washington, D. C., President, Association of American Railroads
(Mr. William Farley wrote Mr. Stephens Jan. 30, asking if a small group of railroad executives might call on the President for a discussion of the railroad industry's situation in our national economy. The Board of Directors of the Association of American Railroads appointed this committee to call on the President.)
- 9:15 am - Bishop Decatur Ward Nichols, African Methodist Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
(Bishop Nichols wrote Governor Adams asking if he would arrange for him to call on the President. He was especially anxious to do so prior to the meeting of his Bishop's Council in New Orleans the week of February 22.)
