AFRICA

This is a compilation of information regarding collections at the Eisenhower Presidential Library containing post-World War II documents relating to Africa. For references to Africa during the war please see the following subject guides:

- North African Campaign in World War II
- North Africa – Relations with de Gaulle or Vichy

Researchers should also look at the complete finding aids for the collections listed in this guide. Finding aids present information about the collections, with biographical or administrative history details. Documents mentioned in this guide may refer to diplomatic relations, business arrangements, foreign aid, or other related subjects. The finding aids will provide the background information on how the individuals or organizations may have interacted with African nations.

This guide lists references to the continent, geographic regions, and specific countries. The collections listed below may also have relevant information in folders that mention topics such as newly independent nations, overseas bases, or underdeveloped or developing nations.
