Alfred M. Gruenther Photographs

91-14-1—12:

These photos were removed from an album commemorating the Loyola University of Los Angeles commencement exercises of June 6, 1965, at which Gruenther gave the address and had an honorary degree conferred upon him. Along with the photos, the album contained a letter from Charles S. Casassa, president of Loyola, and a program for the commencement. These have been retained with the photos. The album cover, which is dark blue and has the university logo, Gruenther's name, and the date of the commencement exercises embossed in gold on the front, is kept with the collection.

91-14-13—16:

Photos taken from album commemorating Seattle University commencement exercises of May 23—29, 1956, at which Gruenther gave the address and received an honorary degree. Also included in the album were: a program for the commencement exercises, seven copies of "Seattle "U" Reports" (five destroyed), eight newspaper clippings (photocopied, originals destroyed), a press release for April 19, 1956, and a memo regarding Gruenther's itinerary in Seattle (photocopied, originals destroyed). These have been preserved or replaced with photocopies as necessary and retained with the collection. The album cover, brown with foil-embossed floral design and Gruenther's name on the front, was destroyed due to poor condition and high acid content. (NRB 8/7/2009)
