This series consists of a card index of organizations which had offered honorary memberships or degrees to Mamie Eisenhower, or had invited her to be a sponsor, chairman, or patroness of special events they were planning. Each contains the name of the person or organization, the nature of the request, dates, and the First Lady's response. The correspondence relating to these requests is in Subseries I: Requests for the First Lady of the East Wing Correspondence Series.

All documents in this series are open and available for research. Cards are arranged alphabetically.
