SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

John H. Lehman, of Abilene, Kansas, served on the Board of Directors of both the Eisenhower Foundation and the Eisenhower Presidential Library Commission, performing legal services for both organizations.

With the exception of certified copies of some legal documents and a small amount of correspondence, all items in this collection are photocopies and not originals. Documents include Articles of Incorporation, by-laws, notices and minutes of meetings, lists of members of the Board of Trustees, deeds, financial statements, resolutions, legal pleadings, contracts, invitations, correspondence and other documents relating to the business and legal affairs of the Eisenhower Foundation from 1945 through 1969.

Additional subjects include the construction and completion of the Place of Meditation, the transfer of property from the Foundation to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), and the creation and function of the Eisenhower Presidential Library Commission for which Mr. Lehman also served as legal advisor for the period 1956-1968.
