SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

John E. Archibold, the son of Robert, Jr. and Eileen Archibold, was a friend and neighbor of the Doud family in Denver, Colorado, who came to be friends with Dwight as well.

The Archibold Papers contain mostly correspondence from the Eisenhowers to John Archibold and his parents, though a number of news clippings relating to the Eisenhowers and their involvement with the Archibolds are also included. The correspondence includes telegrams, dictated and handwritten letters, cards, and memorabilia.

A photograph of David and Julie Eisenhower sent to John's wife Molly Archibold and a fishing hat given to John Archibold by Dwight have been transferred to the Audio Visual Department and the Eisenhower Museum respectively. Handwritten letters have been replaced by photocopies and the originals removed for preservation purposes.
