John S. D. Eisenhower deposited these materials with the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library on September 6, 1988 and signed an instrument of gift for the papers on October 12, 1999. Literary rights in the unpublished writings of Dwight D. Eisenhower are retained by the donor. Under terms of the instrument of gift, the following classes of items are withheld from research use:

1. Papers which constitute an invasion of personal privacy or a libel of a living person.
2. Papers which are required to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and are properly classified.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

These albums contain awards and diplomatic documents presented to Dwight D. Eisenhower during his military and Presidential career. The documents date from 1911-1961 and were divided into three subseries which are described below. President Eisenhower gave the albums to his son, John S. D. Eisenhower who later donated them to the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library.

These documents were originally housed in clear acetate sleeves in black albums. They were arranged into subseries according to document type with each subseries arranged chronologically. Photostats were substituted for some original documents that John Eisenhower retained for his personal collection. As a preservation measure the documents were removed from the deteriorating acetate sleeves and rehoused in acid-free boxes and folders.

Because of the size and condition of the original documents, researchers will be provided with facsimiles of the albums. The page numbers and arrangement of the albums has been retained within the facsimile collection. Each item is numbered with the original album and page numbers. In most albums there were items mounted on unnumbered pages or stored between pages. These have been assigned numbers corresponding with their location within the album. For instance, a document between pages 36 and 37 would be numbered by the archivist as 36A. Please note that the page numbers refer to individual items; some items, such as booklets, may consist of multiple pages.
