SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The papers of Leonard V. Finder span the years 1930 to 1969, with the bulk of the material falling between the years 1960 to 1969. Perhaps the most significant portions are contained in the Eisenhower File (1946-1969) and in the subject and correspondence files which cover the years 1962 to 1966 when Finder was editor and publisher of the Sacramento (California) Union.

The beginning of Leonard Finder's friendship with Dwight D. Eisenhower may be dated from mid-1947 when Finder invited then General Eisenhower to speak at the Manchester (New Hampshire) Community Forum. Eisenhower spoke to the Forum on October 16, 1947, and from correspondence in the Eisenhower File it is evident that Finder's role in the "Draft General Eisenhower" campaign started soon after. Of particular interest are copies of the letters of January 22 and 27, 1948 which Ike wrote to Finder to explain publicly (Jan. 22) why he would not run for public office and to explain privately (Jan. 27) why he had chosen Finder's letter to answer. (The originals of these letters are still in the possession of the Finder family). In Finders Literary and Speech File are drafts and manuscripts of the articles which Finder wrote in support of Eisenhower in 1948, 1951, and 1955. Other correspondence in the file gives evidence to the long personal relationship which the Finder family maintained with the Eisenhowers.

The early records (Subject and Correspondence File, 1930-1950 and Literary and Speech File, 1932-1959) chronicle Finder's college and post-college literary experiences as well as his association with the Anti-Defamation League and his early career as a publisher with the Manchester (N.H.) Evening-Leader and the Strafford Star. (Note: Bound copies of these two newspapers for the periods May 27, 1947 to April 30, 1949 and April 17 to July 29, 1950, respectively, have been deposited in the Book Collection of the Library). Major correspondents in the early period include Sherman Adams, Carl Berendsen, Henri Bonnet, Styles Bridges, William C. Bullitt, Tom C. Clark, Louis Denfield, Thomas E. Dewey, Joseph C. Grew, Lister Hill, David E. Lilienthal, Claude Pepper, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Charles W. Tobey.

The Subject and Correspondence File for the period 1951 to 1961 gives evidence of Finder's involvement in many civic activities as well as in business matters related to his position as Vice President and Secretary of the Universal Match Corporation in St. Louis, Missouri. Not only was he involved in B'nai B'rith activities but he also provided major support in the Bonds for Israel campaign, and served on the board of directors of the St. Louis United Fund campaign, worked actively for the support of Washington University and several local welfare agencies. Major correspondents in this period include Sherman Adams, Josaphat T. Benoit, Newell Brown, Christian A. Herter, Lon Hocker, Jacob K. Javits, Philip M. Klutznick, Charles E. Merrow, Maxwell M. Rabb, Abram L. Sachar, Robert L. Schulz, Fred A. Seaton and Adlai E. Stevenson.

Papers for the period 1962-1966 consist of general and personal correspondence, a subject file, and editorial reference file, and a personal file. The subject and editorial reference files in particular document newspaper publisher and editor Finder's interest in the John Birch Society and other extremist groups, Republican Party affairs, California politics, world travel, public issues of the times, and Jewish community affairs. Principal correspondents in the 1962-66 period include Joseph G. Babish, Thomas W. Braden, Edmund G. Brown, George Christopher, Mark O. Hatfield, Frank M. Jordan, Philip M. Klutznick, William F. Knowland, Thomas H.

Kuchel, George Murphy, Richard M. Nixon, Gaylord B. Parkinson, James A. Rhodes, Nelson A. Rockefeller, Carlos P. Romulo, and Pierre Salinger.

After Finder left the Sacramento Union in 1966, he devoted his time lecturing and writing--lecturing primarily at the University of California at Davis and, following a world tour in 1966, working on a book manuscript entitled "Reflections in Asia" as well as numerous newspaper and magazine articles. During this period he was also very active in the California Republican Party and the Republican Council, The National Council on Crime and Delinquency, the Sacramento Area Mental Health Association, and the Sacramento Committee for Peace in the Middle East, and he pursued an interest in serving in the International Executive Service Corps. Primary correspondents in this period included George Christopher, Robert H. Finch, Mark O. Hatfield, Jacob K. Javits, Thomas H. Kuchel, George Murphy, John E. Moss, Richard M. Nixon, and Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Five monographs were added to the Library's Book Collection, numerous photographs of Mr. Finder were added to the Audiovisual Collection, and several items were transferred to the Museum collections.
