Approximate number of pages:	30
Approximate number of items:	27

In a letter of April 17, 1970, donating the material to the Eisenhower Library, Mr. Pike placed no restrictions on access to the material. Because of donor's letter of intent did not explicitly convey copyright to the people of the United States, it should be presumed that copyright in the writings of Mr. Pike is held by Mr. Pike or, after his death, his estate.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Thomas P. Pike was born in California in 1909 and attended Stanford University. In 1938 he organized his own oil drilling company which eventually became one of the largest oil drilling companies in California. Pike was also active in Republican politics. He supported Dwight D. Eisenhower during the 1952 campaign and served as chairman of the California State Republican Finance Committee. After Eisenhower became president he appointed Pike to the Department of Defense where Pike specialized in supply and logistical matters. Pike resigned from the Defense Department in 1956 but continued to work part time for another two years as a special assistant to the Secretary of Defense and President Eisenhower.

The papers of Thomas P. Pike consist of electrostatic copies of his personal correspondence with Dwight D. Eisenhower. Most of letters date from the period from 1960 to 1968 after Pike had left the White House staff. The letters are largely of a routine social nature and contain no information on Pike's duties during the Eisenhower administration. A separate collection, the Thomas P. Pike Records, contains Pike's office files from the White House.
