

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

27th May 1959.

Dear Mr. President,

Now that the plans for our joint opening of the Atlantic Seaway are taking shape, I am writing to tell you how much my husband and I look forward to entertaining Mrs Eisenhower and yourself at luncheon onboard our Yacht on Friday, 26th June.

Although it will certainly be a busy day for everyone, we hope that there may be time to show you something of the ship.

I am,

Yours sincerely

Elizabeth R
