IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 11, 1958

James C. Hagerty, Press Secretary to the President

THE WHITE HOUSE

THE PRESIDENT TODAY RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE FROM THE
PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS OF THE REPUBLIC OF FRANCE

Dear Mr. President:

Thanks to the United States Navy, the 'NAUTILUS', whose expected exploits generations of Frenchmen had learned about in advance, has accomplished its destiny. Allow me to tell you how delighted I am at this exemplary success.
It is fine and good that a great country of liberty should give so brilliantly the proof of inventiveness and courage.

Yours very sincerely,

C de Gaulle
