

PARTICIPANTS IN OCTOBER 24th WOMEN'S PROGRAM

Mrs. Louis Martin, who lives on small farm near Salisbury, Maryland--Negro
Has 12 children; 19 grandchildren
A total of college graduates among Martin family is 11;
and the number of degrees to 13, 3 of which are Master's.

The father, 66, has worked most of his life at a salary of $80 a week--and a good deal of the time for only $30.

Mrs. Mary Lanuti, 310 River Street (Tel. Hunter 9-5322)--Wife of Labor
Oliphant, Pa. Union Member

(husband works at U.S. Hofman Plant--member of International Association of Machinists (A.F.L.-C.I.O.))

has 2 daughters--25 and 23--brought up 3 children of sister's family, whose husband was killed in mine accident.

Mrs. Margarite Laurianti, 1010 Euclid Avenue (Tel. Cherry 1-0841)--Small Business
Cleveland, Ohio Owner
owns and operates own beauty shop

Mrs. Helen Dormitzer, 188 West Randolph ----Political Volunteer
Chicago, Illinois

outstanding volunteer in philanthropic and civic work.

Mrs. Violet Byg, Route 4 (Tel. Crooks 6-F11)--Wife of a Farmer
Sioux Falls, South Dakota

Mother of three small children.

Mrs. Peter Marshall, widow of the Washington, D. C. Presbyterian Minister.
Author of "The Man Called Peter."

Miss Beverly Barr, Rochester, N.Y. ----A First Voter

teaches government in Junior High School

her Father is member of Board of Education.