

Processed by: DAD
Date: 9/12/75

BECKER

BECKER, J. BILL                      (OH-166)      34 pages      PRCQ to Columbia

Arkansas labor union official involved in Arkansas civil rights activities.

DESCRIPTION: Interview #1. Early activities in Arkansas labor union affairs. Position taken by organized labor in Arkansas during the Little Rock school integration crisis, 1957-58. Labor's censure of Governor Orval Faubus in 1958 and 1962. Labor's part in the recall election of Little Rock school board members in 1959. General observations on labor unions' involvement in Arkansas civil rights activities.

[Columbia University Oral History Project, interview by John Luter, 1971]