

Processed by: VJA
Date: 06/05/06

WARREN, JAMES

WARREN, JAMES

OH-470

55 pp. w/index

PRQ

(This transcript is bound in Earl Warren: The Governor's Family)

Businessman, son of Chief Justice and former California governor, Earl Warren.

DESCRIPTION: Early childhood; Del Monte Military Academy in Pacific Grove, California; transfer to Oakland Public Schools; sports and sports-related injuries; schoolwork; parents involvement in PTA; summertime and household chores; studying at the University of California, Berkeley; college organizations and athletics; growing up as son of the District Attorney and Attorney General; father's ability to separate professional and family life; life in the Warren household; family activities on Sundays; other recollections of family life; their house on Vernon Street; making drawings for the family Christmas cards; graduate studies in Business at Harvard; classification as 4F at the beginning of World War II; reclassification as 1B for limited service; finally qualifying as a paratrooper; ending up back in limited service at the Presidio; gaining a commission in the Marine Corps; marriage; post-war work in advertising; move to work in agricultural real estate; Earl Warren as a grandfather; letter from Earl Warren to grandson on unfairness of racial inequality; politics and the Warren family; his father as Chief Justice.

NAME & SUBJECT INDEX.

[Earl Warren Oral History Project, Regional Oral History Office, Bancroft Library, interview by Merriam Feingold Stein, July 26, 1976]